How to Treat a Troublesome Corn.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by all druggists.

When you want prompt acting little pills that never gripe use DeWitt's Little Early Risers. B. H. Bieber, Hartz & Ullemeyer.

READY FOR THE FRAY

Iowa and Northwestern Football Teams Come For Game.

TO MEET TOMORROW AT PARK

A Hard Fought Contest on the Local Gridiron Looked For.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Twelfth street park the signal will be given for the beginning of the great football contest between the Iowa and Northwestern university eleven. Iowa is confident of victory, but is not underestimating the strength of its adversary, while Northwestern, conceding the superiority of the Hawkeyes, has been hard at practice in the hope of at least keeping down the score.

The prospects are for fast play. Both teams will put forth their best men. They have been thoroughly trained and practiced. The seat sale has been large, and favored by good weather, the indications are the grounds will be packed to the limit.

The Northwestern team arrived this afternoon over the D. R. I. & N. W. and is quartered at the Harper house. The Iowa team, which also came in this afternoon, is stopping at the St. James, in Davenport. Large delegations of rooters are to come from Chicago and Iowa City tomorrow and there will be excursions run from various other points.

The Twelfth street park will present a gay scene tomorrow afternoon. Society will turn out in force, and the colors of the respective teams will be conspicuous in large ribbons streaming from admirers. The megaphone and the band will be there, and augmented by the vocal demonstrations, there will be noise in plenty.

The Rock Island Club will attend in a body, wearing the club colors, red and white, and occupying a specially reserved section of seats. The Northwestern colors are royal purple and Iowa's old gold.

Fred Hayner, of Lake Forrest, will referee the game, and F. L. Burkland, of Moline, will act as umpire. The tri-city high school football teams will serve as ushers.

Records of Teams. This season Iowa is strong in every position. Only two players will be included in the line-up of the Northwestern game who did not do service

A GREAT BARGAIN FEAST.

One of the greatest auction sales in many years took place in Chicago last Wednesday and Thursday, when the entire stock of the KUH, NATHAN & FISHER CO. was sold in a day and a half. The stock consisted of over $300,000 worth of the best kind of men's, boy's and children's clothing. Our buyer was on hand and secured many thousand dollars worth of the best offerings. These goods are now on sale and we offer them at less than K. N. & F. Co. sold them at wholesale. An unusual offer but an unusual event, as the K. N. & F. Co. were going out of business and disposed of their entire stock to the highest bidder.
